Pest Control Services

Here at HPC247, we protect homes and businesses from a variety of pests. We use a range of techniques to make sure that the problem is dealt with, and that preventative measures are taken. An infestation of insects and rodents can cause plenty of problems, not only to your surroundings, but your health as well.

Crawling Insects

You would have encountered critters of this nature on a regular basis, but you will need to enlist our services if your home or property has been infested. These disruptive insects can cause plenty of problems to furniture and other household materials. In addition, some crawling insects will contaminate food if they come into contact with it, so it is vital that the infestation is eradicated.

Our team members are on hand to help if your home has been inundated with the following:

- Ants
- Bed Bugs
- Booklice
- Carpet Beetles
- Cockroaches

HPC247 have professionals that are knowledgeable in a variety of methods when it comes to destroying infestations. We are experts in identifying different species of insect and choosing the best way to eradicate the problem. For more detailed information on the variety of crawling insects, visit our website.

Birds

These particular pests can cause problems for domestic and commercial properties, but the damage differs depending on the extent of the issue. Our team is well-equipped to deal with proofing, which will help your premises become bird-free. We carry out a range of control services relating to:

- Pigeons
- Seagulls
- Falconry

Droppings, in particular, are a common problem when birds come into contact with buildings. Not only is it unsightly, but it can at times become hazardous. Here at HPC247, our bird specialists offer a free property survey and will provide you with advice and measures to keep these flying creatures at bay.

On top of that, we also offer deterrents that we will put in place to stop birds from accessing your premises. As well as defecating on buildings, some birds can ruin roof tiles by dislodging them, or block gutters. Our website details how we will cope with this particular pest threat.

Our team of experts offer effective pest control services at competitive prices, so you do not have to worry about dealing with the problem yourself. Our top-quality callout service will respond within 24 hours, and will work around a time that is most convenient for you.

Flying Insects

It is not unusual to come into contact with a flying insect, but when an infestation occurs, you need our team of experts to handle the problem. We have a wide range of powerful insecticides that will destroy the threat of these unwanted creatures. Not only can these particular insects cause damage to fabrics in your home, some can affect health as well. At HPC247, we offer services that eradicate:

- Fleas
- Moths
- Wasps

In severe cases, a simple fly spray is not enough. Our team of experts go to the root of the problem and expel the threat through a variety of different methods. The process of eliminating these pests differs depending on the insect itself. So, to learn more about our individual services, take a look at our website.

We cater to domestic and commercial clients across Hampshire. All you have to do is give us a call on 023 9309 2974 (Portsmouth) or 023 8218 2784 (Southampton) and we will rid you of your pest problem. Our controllers are equipped to deal with insects, birds and rodents, among many others.

Rodents

Having a rodent infestation can cause plenty of problems for an individual's home or commercial property. A situation such as this brings with it health risks as well as physical damage. If rodents come into contact with food, it will lead to contamination and possible ill health for anyone who ingests it. An infestation could also affect the hygiene of children's play areas, so it is imperative to get the issue seen to.

Our team at HPC247 are on hand to rid your home or commercial property of the following:

- Rats
- Mice
- Squirrels
- Moles

We will target the nests to make sure that you do not suffer a reoccurrence of the same problem. For more information, visit our website.
